

Middle School Paraprofessional Opportunity

Nestled in rolling forested hills amid abundant lakes, Delton Kellogg is a public school district with a small school feel and big school opportunities. We are seeking a patient, tolerant, and flexible paraprofessional who is ready to set high expectations and enhance the lives of students in the upcoming school year.

Collaborative and community-focused, Delton Kellogg is committed to enriching the experience of staff by encouraging the sharing of knowledge and skills through teamwork, mentorship, and professional development.

You will have the opportunity to:

- Assist students in maintaining appropriate school behaviors
- Facilitate the development of skills in self-regulation, organization, and task completion
- Work with students one-on-one or in small groups to restore justice and solve problems
- Implement and support behavior plans in all areas of the school
- Provide individual student support in a Least Restrictive Environment
- Document student behavior on a routine basis
- Redirect student behavior and reinforce appropriate behavior throughout the school day
- Interact with a variety of students while providing breakfast and lunch supervision
- Work from 7:30am-2:50pm weekdays, with summers and school vacation days off
- Contribute in other ways as directed by the Principal, the Superintendent, or their designees

A qualified candidate will possess:

- A High School Diploma or GED
- Ideal candidates also will have:
  - Crisis Prevention Institute Training
  - Experience working with physically, mentally, or emotionally impaired students
  - Trauma Informed Training
  - Nonviolent Crisis Training

Your benefits will include:

- $13.00 per hour
- Excellent health, dental, vision, and life insurance options
- Your choice between two retirement options

When you're ready to apply:

- Send a copy of your cover letter and resume to:
